Workforce Development Training Unit

OHS Module 1 and 2

Course Objective

This training addresses the requirements of OHS in an organisational setting and prioritises the responsibilities, challenges and benefits of safety and health of workers and partners at the worksite

Target Group

OHS Officers, Managers, Team Leaders, Occupational health and safety practitioner, Any other staff or individual intending to enhance their knowledge on OHS

Learning Outcomes

At the successful completion of the training participants should be able to:

- Explain the intent of the OHS Act and its rationale
- Explain duties of employers, workers, suppliers, manufacturers, installers & others
- Demonstrate the use of workplace arrangement to resolve workplace health & safety issues
- Describe methods used to identify hazards & assessing their risk factor.
- Identify appropriate situations for applying the different types of communications
- Describe the principals underlying the hierarchy of controls & how a range of control method may be selected.
- Identify the relevant regulations & codes of practice being developed for specific hazards.
- Identify the intent & purpose of OHS Act 1996, regulations & code of practice.

Date	Time	Venue	Training Fee
15-17 May 2017	8.30am – 5.00pm	Workforce Development Training Unit, Foster Court, 107 Foster Rd, Walu-Bay	$350 per person (Includes training fee, training materials, refreshments lunch and certificate)

Closing Date for Registration: Thursday 11 May 2017

Please submit the completed registration form to Pacific TAFE's, Workforce Development Training Unit by 11 May 2017. To obtain registration form, please visit www.usp.ac.fj/pacifictafe and selecting Workforce Development Training Unit. For further information please contact Renu Devi on 3312297 and e-mail: devi_re@usp.ac.fj or Muni Naicker on tel: (679) 3312193, e-mail: naicker_m@usp.ac.fj

TOWARDS EXCELLENCE IN LEARNING AND KNOWLEDGE CREATION