

FIJIAN TOURISM TALANOA

Etiquette Guidelines

Participants in attendance are required to abide by the following etiquettes during the Fijian Tourism Talanoa.

- The main aim of the Fijian Tourism Talanoa is to progress and grow the Fijian tourism sector on a sustainable trajectory.
- Participants must embrace the Fijian traditions associated with the true meaning of Talanoa and ensure that discussions are undertaken respectfully, with sincerity and humility to foster a strong relationship of trust and goodwill.
- Participants are to be guided by the moderator who will manage the Fijian Tourism Talanoa to ensure exchange of views and ideas are conducted in a cordial and constructive manner, thus avoiding any kind of conflict or delays in the flow of the Fijian Tourism Talanoa.
- Participants are requested to use the following link (<https://goo.gl/forms/mLoQlitzWUO4aemu2>) to send their questions.
- Participants will have an opportunity to take the floor to ask questions or provide comments of no longer than two minutes. Session moderators will aim to ensure a balanced representation of stakeholder groups. States, businesses, civil society and other groups will be treated on an equal footing.
- Session moderators may use their discretion in the management of the interventions from the floor in order to achieve dynamic discussions. Participants are at all times to conduct themselves in a professional manner and give others the opportunity to be heard during dialogue.
- Remarks should be pertinent to the topic of the session and related to the industry.
- Participate should not personalize any intervention. Participants are to encourage a healthy exchange of views and opinions at all times to achieve outcomes that are objective and considered.
- Participants are to activate silent or vibrate mode for mobiles when the Fijian Tourism Talanoa is in session.
- Participants are not to interject in the course of a speakers presentation or speech.
- All meeting documents, presentations and speeches will be made available to registered participants upon the completion of the talanoa session. Therefore, the Secretariat will not print any FTT related documents.
- FTT outcomes will be emailed to all registered participants a week after the event.
