EXPERT MIXOLOGIST QUYNH NGUYEN ARRIVES AT INTERCONTINENTAL FIJI GOLF RESORT & SPA

(NATADOLA, FIJI) Monday 8th January 2017 – InterContinental Fiji Golf Resort & Spa is pleased to welcome professional Mixologist Quynh Nguyen who will reside at the resort for the next three months to showcase his expertise and creativity. Quynh has nine years of extensive bar and lounge experience across Dubai, Singapore and Australia, which will lift the already great service and bar experience at Natadola Bay to a whole new level worthy of a large international city.

Quynh will be based in Kama Lounge, overlooking the beautiful white sands of Fiji’s best beach. He will be responsible for implementing the new bar experience across all three restaurants and two bars as well as Club InterContinental.

His recent work has been at “Fred’s” and “Charlie Parkers” in Sydney where both venues have been featured prominently as the best bars and restaurants in Sydney, Australia. Fred’s was recently voted Delicious Magazine’s NSW #1 best restaurant. Charlie Parker’s was recognised as the Best Sustainable Programme at the Australian Bartender Magazine Bar Awards.

“We are delighted to have someone of Quynh’s calibre at our resort and to engage his expertise. He will assist in the creation of new cocktails that highlight the best of Fiji’s fresh local ingredients and flavours with a splash of international flair,” said Craig Wood, InterContinental Fiji’s Director of Dining & Entertainment.

“With an emphasis on freshness, locality and innovation, we look forward to delivering a heightened experience across our Restaurants & Bars, InterContinental Meetings and Club InterContinental. Valued guests can expect a true sense of place with our well crafted cocktails complimented with amazing vistas at Natadola Bay.”

Kama Lounge is InterContinental Fiji’s flagship bar. Offering superb views of Natadola Bay, evening entertainment, and renowned Fijian hospitality, it’s the idyllic way to watch the sunset in paradise.

InterContinental Fiji Golf Resort & Spa is part of the InterContinental Hotel Group (IHG) with over 5,000 and 744,000 guest rooms in nearly 100 countries. Overlooking the azure waters of Natadola Beach – voted by CNN as one of the best beaches in the world, and Fiji’s finest beach, the resort is spread across 35 acres of tropical manicured gardens and offers all of the facilities and services expected of luxury international resort.
