Radisson Blu Resort Fiji – Refurbishment for Harmony Spa

The Radisson Blu Resort Fiji's 'Harmony Spa Retreat' has undergone a refurbishment of the treatment rooms surrounding the resorts Spa island and waterfall lagoon, giving it a fresh look.

Set amidst lush tropical surroundings, Harmony Retreat Day Spa offers next-level relaxation with natural treatments and a calming atmosphere with its upgraded facilities.

With the resorts current room re-modelling scheme for all 270 rooms, Mr. Bobby Raniga owner of the Harmony Spa saw it as opportunity to enhance the spa and its surrounding waterfall lagoon to uphold the 5 star services of the resort and keep facilities fresh for spa goers while on holiday.

The wonderful staff at Harmony spa are experts in all areas of treatments, every aspect of a massage or facial is an experience you will not find anywhere else on Denarau. The care factor which is paramount at the Radisson Blu Resort Fiji flows through to these wonderful therapists.

"This refurbishment will only enrich the experience with the beautiful rooms you will enter when booking a treatment," says Bobby Raniga.

"Mr. Bobby Raniga has been with the Radisson Blu Resort Fiji since the 2007 opening and has always been a wonderful partner, working to make every experience for our guests special. We are so pleased with the end result and have very happy therapists, excited about showcasing the new rooms to all of our guests, there will be special offers with the opening of these rooms for guests staying at the resort," says Suzie Jones, Director of Sales and Marketing at the Radisson Blu Resort Fiji.
