VOMO General Manager scoops award - again

FIJI: 18 September 2018: The VOMO Island Fiji experience just keeps excelling.

VOMO is a luxury family - and couples - destination, offering contemporary and sophisticated accommodation, exceptional cuisine, outstanding facilities and surroundings, blended with genuine Fijian hospitality.

A winning combination that resort General Manager Mark Leslie, along with the resort owners, has been creating over the last five years.

With the investments made, the level of service provided and the way VOMO looks after families, Mark's vision has not only come to fruition but he has now again been awarded for the second time South Pacific General Manager at the 2018 HM Awards for Hotel and Accommodation Excellence held recently held in Sydney.

The annual awards are the leading industry awards in the region and celebrate best properties, departments, people, chains and brand in Australia, New Zealand and the South Pacific. VOMO was also highly commended in the Fijian Property section, it won the category last year.

Mark joined VOMO 5 years ago when he arrived with his wife and young son, from Seychelles where he managed Deroches Island Resort (now a Four Seasons resort).
