RBF Exchange Control e-Service System

The RBF has issued a notice to the public introducing an online exchange control application portal called the Exchange Control e-Service System. The system will replace the current manual submission of applications for foreign exchange payments that require the approval of the RBF.

From 1 November 2018, applications for foreign exchange payments together with the necessary supporting documents must be lodged through the e-Service System. The e-Service System also enables users to view the status of their applications and receive approvals on-line.

The e-forms can be accessed via the RBF e-Service portal on <https://eservice.rbf.gov.fj>. Applications can be submitted directly to the RBF or through licensed commercial banks and restricted foreign exchange dealers.

For more information on accessibility to use the e-Service System, please contact a licensed commercial bank and/or restricted foreign exchange dealer.

For more information on the notice issued by the RBF, please direct your queries to the staff of the Exchange Control Unit on telephone numbers 3223 371 and 3223 375 or email ecservice@rbf.gov.fj.

Please contact your KPMG client service personnel or a member of our Tax team for any assistance with your applications for foreign exchange payments.
