

Team Fiji chefs fly flag with pride

Ravinesh Prasad (Marriot Momi Bay Resort), Navneet Reddy (Outrigger Fiji Beach Resort), Muni Vikash Chetty (Outrigger Fiji Beach Resort), with Davendra Reddy (Fiji Chefs Association president) in Melbourne, Australia yesterday. Photo: Fiji Chefs Association

MERELEKINAI NADI

Team Fiji Chef once again flew the Fijian flag while competing with other Pacific Rim Chefs for the Global Chef semifinals and Battle of the Pacific Restaurant Challenge.

The event was held from June 23-25 in Melbourne, Australia.

These two events will run in conjunction with Food Service Australia Trade Show that attracts culinarians together with food and beverage professionals around the world.

The team was made up with, Global Chef Competitor Navneet Reddy and Global Pastry Competitor Muni Vikash Chetty both from Outrigger Fiji Beach Resort, together with Junior Chef Competitor Ravinesh Prasad from Marriot Momi Bay Resort.

These three talented chefs are Fiji Chefs, Moffat Salon Culinare 2013 Chefs of the Year.

Fiji Chefs Association president Davendra Reddy said, "Fiji Chefs believes that we need to show the world that Fiji is not just sandy beaches with palm trees, but also a culinary venture as a place to visit due to our so distinctive culture that transfers to our beautiful cuisine which many enjoy in following throughout experimenting or medias.

"Changing positively the way Fiji is perceived around the world, is what we mean to achieve."

He said the team would meet various stakeholders in the competition in a bid to foster a grand partnership for the profession in the country.

The Team Fiji Chef for this competition is proudly sponsored by Fiji Airways, Goodman Fielder - Crest and Tuckers, Yees Cold Seafood Storage - Callebaut Chocolate, Outrigger Fiji Beach Resort and Marriot Momi Bay Resort.

The team returns on Monday.
Edited by Susana Tuitau

Feedback: mereteki.nai@fijisun.com.fj